

FOREWORD

The findings of the research presented in this collection of papers are a part of larger research project “Sociological Aspects of Multiculturalism and Regionalization and their Influence on the Development of the Autonomous Province of Vojvodina and the Republic of Serbia”, which was conducted in the period from 2001 to 2005, by the Department of Sociology at the Faculty of Philosophy (www.ff.ns.ac.yu), the University of Novi Sad (Serbia), with the financial support of the Ministry of Science of the Republic of Serbia. It is the first thorough research on the aforementioned issue in Vojvodina, which was conducted both by professors/teaching assistants and by students of the Department of Sociology at the Faculty of Philosophy in Novi Sad. Arranging and printing of the collection of papers was made possible with the financial and overall support of the Provincial Secretary for Science and Tehnological Development of the Executive Council of the Autonomous Province of Vojvodina. Although it imposes further obligations on us, the research team would like to thank the aforementioned public institutions for continuing to extend the support for projects that have arisen from the research presented in this paper.

Editor

